FBLA – Sharon Sanchez

Welcome to the largest and oldest business student organization in the world! A quarter of a million high school and middle school students, college and university students, faculty, educators, administrators, and business professionals have chosen to be members of the premier business education association preparing students for careers in business.

Why is FBLA-PBL so popular? It's simple. We have developed a unique value program that excites students, faculty and administrators, and business professionals to join our organization. If you are interested in developing leadership, communication, and team skills, or simply looking for an organization to meet and network with others at the local, state and national levels, then FBLA-PBL is the organization for you.

FCCLA – Jamie Mesman-Davis

This is a small club making a big difference in our community and across the world. As a club, the members choose various local organizations each year to support. At club meetings, after school, the students bake cookies, breads and other homemade treats. Then the students sell the baked goods at football games, basketball games, parent conferences and any other activity that will accommodate us. In September of 2009 the FCCLA club raised over $500 for the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society, Children's Miracle Network and the Susan G Koman Breast Cancer Foundation. In October 2009 the FCCLA club decided to adopt the My Father's Home, children's home in Bali, Indonesia. The club members will be raising money to purchase sports equipment and musical instruments for the 36 children who live in the home. They will also be having a clothing drive to bring in gently used clothing and shoes for the children in the home. The FCCLA club also decided to give back to those members who are active participants throughout their high school career. For each of our senior club members, as a way of saying thank you for giving to others, our club will purchase a large Kitchen Aid mixer as a graduation gift. We are a small club, but we have big hearts for serving others- come and be a part of it. There is an old saying that says the more you give to others the more you receive.

National Art Honor Society – Cathy Tanasse

Glacier Peak's chapter of National Art Honor Society statement of purpose:

To inspire, recognize and encourage students interested in art and assist them to reach their highest potential. To bring art education to the attention of the school and community through NAHS activities, public artworks and art outreach programs.

National Honor Society – Christa Mallory

National Honor Society is a service organization for juniors and seniors. Membership in the GPHS chapter is both an honor and a privilege. Selection for membership is through an application process reviewed by a Faculty Council and is based on outstanding scholarship, character, leadership, and service. Once selected, the members have the responsibility to continue to demonstrate these qualities.

Students who meet the scholarship criteria (3.5 cumulative GPA) will be notified in the fall of each school year.

One Voice – Tami Caraballo

Ping Pong Club – Wendy Jackson

RAKE: Random Acts of Kindness, Etc. – Terri Corwin

RAKE is a club designed to promote a positive school climate here at Glacier Peak. Students plan activities throughout the school year. Activities include holiday blitz, welcoming new students, student tours, and recognizing students monthly for their selfless acts of kindness.

Robotics – Kevin Winter

Spanish Club – Amanda Olson

Speech and Debate – George Jordan

The Glacier Peak speech and debate team is an exciting and challenging organization. The students prepare, plan, and practice the skills of forensics, public speaking, and dramatics; then apply those skills in inter-high school competition. The competition is at the state and national level. The team is open to all levels of students ranging from freshman to seniors. The only requirement is a desire to learn, improve, and compete in various areas of speech and debate. The team is entirely funded by ASB and the speech and debate club booster organization.
